

Fundamental British Values in Music

Individual liberty 	Students show a sense of enjoyment and fascination in learning about themselves, others and the world around them. They show imagination and creativity in their learning.
Mutual Respect 	Through listening and discussing music and the creative processes behind it, we often identify differences in opinions and feelings. Students are able to appreciate the differences in their own musical tastes, their classmates and the wider world.
Democracy 	In lessons students make decisions together in teams to create and perform music. They make sure that everyone's thoughts, suggestions and ideas are considered.
Freedom of faiths and beliefs 	By studying music from different countries and cultures students understand that we all share the same beliefs and values. They also understand the importance of values and ideas when working together in ensemble groups and learn to listen to others opinions when rehearsing for group performances.
The rule of law 	Students appreciate that the musical instruments that we use are cared for and never damaged. They understand that the rules for their use prepare us for using equipment in the world of work.
