

DanceYear 7*Bollywood

Unit: 5	Title: Bollywood
Why are you teaching it? What do they need to know? Misconceptions?	Bollywood is the second dance unit students will complete at PCS (unless they are involved in dance club). This unit will allow students to explore a cultural dance and manage themselves working in a larger group. This unit allows students to open their mind and experience to other styles of dance. This supports GCSE dance as one of the dance anthologies is a cultural dance style. What is dance? Dance only has one dance style If you can't dance, you shouldn't do it Dance is just for girls There is only one way to be involved with dance- performing.
Why are you teaching it now? What prior learning do students have?	This unit is the second unit taught as it looks more into the components of Dance. In the first unit students start to learn about action, space, dynamics and relationships but are explored as a basic understanding. This unit specifies in looking into spacing and relationship content in more dept. Students look mainly into pathways and formations, of which they have resources to support them with independence.
	Keywords
	SEND	Use of PCS 10 for SEND strategies. All staff to have seating plans identifying SEND students, making sure SEND students are asked more questions and provided with more support in lessons. All staff will have pupil profiles in their teaching and learning folders.
What are you expecting students to be able to do at the end of the module that they couldn't do at the start? (End points)	The students will be able to show accuracy of different characteristics of dance styles they have learnt. And give some background context on the dance style. Students will be able to continue to identify choreographic content in the dance styles, create their own stylistic actions relating to the style. They will be able to talk about the performance content students are showing such as physical, technical and expressive skills. Students will show some basic choreographic developments to the taught set phrases. Students will further their ability to give and receive feedback.

