Name: Ruby Gislingham

Attended PCS: 2008 – 2013

Career/Life Journey since leaving PCS:

I completed 3 A-Levels at BHASVIC, English Language, Media, and Communications and Culture, as well as studying for an NCTJ Journalism Foundation course. I then went on to study Media and Communications at the University of Sussex, which I loved!

Whilst studying at Sussex I became a student ambassador, and worked with young people who had a similar experience as myself in school. I graduated with a 2:1 degree, had a range of graduate jobs at the University, and am now a Project Lead and Student Ambassador Line Manager within my team.

My current role feels very meaningful for my career journey, as I'm able to support young people in a role that I previously worked myself. I love working with current University students and am really proud of my journey since leaving PCS.
