

VE Day

The guns are silent, flags unfurl,
Victory's echo, a joyful sound,
A grateful nation, hearts awirl,
As peace descends on hallowed ground.

From years of darkness, hope takes flight,
Their sacrifice, a guiding star,
Remembering those who fought the fight,
Delivering freedom, near and far.

Through tear-filled eyes, a grateful glance,
At skies now clear, no longer gray,
A solemn vow, a hopeful chance,
To build a world where peace will stay.

Let trumpets sound and spirits soar,
VE Day's promise, forever bright,
A future forged, forevermore,
In unity, and guiding light.
