

VE Day

It's a day of celebration.
A day to come together.
A day where we remember the victory for Great Britain.

It's a day for parties and celebration.
For love and togetherness.
As we connect with others and gather as a nation.

Streets are filled with reunited families.
The worry and tears replaced with smiles and cheers.
In many a town there wasn't a frown in sight.
All worries put aside as people danced into the night.

All across Europe battlegrounds lay empty.
The planes stay unmanned the guns put to rest.
But for other countries it's another day of distress

It's a day that will never be forgotten.
An important day in history.
As Germany surrenders.
And Europe claims victory.
