Wellbeing and Safeguarding
Staff or contracted providers are not aware of the school procedure for handling Prevent concerns and/or do not feel comfortable sharing issues internally.	Staff have received appropriate training and are familiar with the school safeguarding policy.	All staff are aware of the safeguarding procedure and that violent extremism and radicalisation are included within it. The Designated Safeguarding term is the point of contact. Staff receive training in the safeguarding process.	MVE	1.9.23 whole school training / ongoing CPD throughout academic year
The school's ICT and E-Safety policies do not contain information and guidance about the risks of online radicalisation.	Both the school's ICT and E-Safety policies contain information and guidance about the risks of online radicalisation and are updated accordingly.	All stakeholders are aware that the policies are listed on the website, with clear guidance on how to access them.	MVE	Annually

The recruitment procedures do not rigorously reflect the values of the school as well as the importance the school places on Safeguarding.	The school's recruitment procedures reflect the values of the school as well as the importance the school places on Safeguarding.	The Leadership Team and HR take collective responsibility at interviews to make explicit the school's core values. The process specifically explores safeguarding matters.	HR/SLT team	Ongoing throughout the academic year

Frontline staff, including governors, do not know what measures are available to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism and do not know how to obtain support for people who may be exploited by radicalising influences. Staff do not access Prevent training or refresher training.	All staff complete the online Prevent training a minimum of every two years. There is effective briefing for staff.	All staff are aware of signs and risks of radicalisation and procedures within our school.	MVE
Curriculum and learning
Learners are exposed by school staff or contracted providers to messaging supportive of terrorism or which contradicts 'British Values'.	Appropriate whistleblowing and safeguarding policies for assessing concerns raised by staff or learners are in place. Opportunities to promote British values are clearly identified within all curriculum areas.	The school has clear and visible policies and procedures for managing whistleblowing and complaints.	SLT and Safeguarding team work on key areas within the curriculum for PREVENT and promoting FBV. The whistleblowing policy is clear and is available to staff in staff rooms and through posters.	Ongoing throughout the academic year.

Management of Space
Learners/staff are exposed by visiting speakers to messaging supportive of terrorism or which contradicts 'British Values' of individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance for those of different faiths and beliefs.	Speakers are signed in and collected by a member of staff and are not left alone with learners.	No events, talks or relationships with external bodies promote violent extremism.	Speakers are carefully vetted regarding their messages prior to being allowed in school. There is clear safeguarding of messages prior to delivery- any doubts are shared with the line manager/ DSL/Headteacher.	Ongoing
Extremist or terrorist-related material is displayed within school premises.	Policies are in place for the display of materials within school premises.	There are displays regarding Prevent, British Values, and Community Cohesion within classrooms and through SPHERE.	See Peacehaven Community School's Antibullying policy. Inclusivity is promoted throughout the school.	Ongoing
Learners access extremist or terrorist material whilst using school networks.	School has filtering policies and a code of conduct covering users' attempt to subvert networks (e.g. VPN).
